Cerebral Palsy Association of British Columbia Tanabe Bursary Frequently Asked Questions

What can I use the bursary money for?

You can use the money for many types of learning. This could include, but is not limited to, Universities (University of British Columbia), Colleges (Kwantlen College), Technical Schools (British Columbia Institute of Technology), Institutes (The Justice Institute), a private school or college (Sprott/Shaw College) or an apprenticeship program. You can use the bursary money for books, equipment or other school-related expenses.

How much money can I ask for?

The bursary is for $1000.00 per award

Do I have to pay the money back? No

Do I have to be a certain age to get the bursary?

You need to be over the age of 18 or have your high school graduation certificate (in British Columbia this is called a "Dogwood Certificate") or a school-leaving certificate.

Do I have to live in British Columbia?

Yes, you need to have been a resident of British Columbia for at least one year, although you may request money to study at an institution outside of the province or the country.

Do I need a diagnosis of Cerebral Palsy?

Yes you do. The bursary is only for people with CP. You must provide documentation that you have Cerebral Palsy. This can be documentation from a private physiotherapist, occupational therapist or a school file. It does not have to be from a physician.

When do I need to send in my application?

You must have your application postmarked no later than June 13th for the next academic year. Proof of enrollment is not needed to apply for the bursary, only to receive the cheque. Recipients will be notified no later than August 1st.

How will I know if I am receiving a bursary and how will you send me the money?

You will receive a letter confirming that you have been awarded a bursary. When you have shown proof of enrollment (for example a bill or invoice for the courses you have enrolled in) money will be sent directly to you.

Can I apply for the bursary more than once?

The funds are open to everyone, even if they have been awarded monies through this fund before.

What do I do if I cannot fill out the forms?

You can present your application in any way you communicate. This includes bringing someone along to help you. Make sure we have your name, address and phone number so we can arrange this.

Why is it called the Tanabe Bursary?

The bursary is named for Yoshinori Tanabe in recognition of his years of dedication to, and advocacy for, people in British Columbia who live with Cerebral Palsy.

Where do I send the required information and who do I ask if I have more questions?

You can send the information or request more information via mail, fax or email.
